

SOMEONE I AM NOT

I was on the road but I had no luck
Then I came here to stay and I got stuck
Though I planned to be running and Get out of your sight
I have seen it coming
But I needed to fight

Against windmills or elsewhere the slave would come out
But that piece of my heart is the aching part
But tonight I won't be sobbing
I shall yet overcome
The dread when having to be

Someone I am not

You have to be careful for those who come after you
And you must not forget sometimes there's still only you
And you will be left alone but it's a matter of view
And perception that shows how you've accomplished the goal

There are thousands of liars who just follow the lead
And intrigue you with false and very bad needs
When you're held back by others
It's about to imply
One needs to recover
Support and supply

Now the good will and charity
They have left things undone
If you want something done
You know what you better do it alone
Tonight you won't be sobbing
You shall yet overcome
The dread of having to be

Someone you are not

A. #10

Sometimes you fear to go insane
Coz it's a thin line between
Teamwork and a stupid game
When words won't stop to refrain
They say write them down let them out
Try not to feel ashamed

So then I do as I've been told
I expose myself say what I want
But still I feel naked it's kind of bold
Coz some people just won't let my opinion be instead
They're just continuously spinning what they believe
Is important to me

Baby I don't wanna see you crying
But I think I know that you were lying Got nothing left to do except for trying
The only chance we have is if we don't deny it

I gave it all thought we'd stick through
You promised that you and I were gonna be Truly prepared for any possible uncertainty
And I believed as long as I could
But it wasn't reality

Oh no baby now I am going to see you crying
Coz I knew that you were lying
Got nothing left to do not even trying
The last chance that you had, has just gone by
Baby I don't wanna see you crying
But I think I know I knew that you were lying
Got nothing left to do not even trying
The last chance that you had, has just gone by

BEAUTY

Beauty what a snake you are
You stabbed our backs
Not just twice so far
You robbed the body
You stole our pride
Like when you're being chosen
By ambition to satisfy
In the name of tradition

But I just wanna
Lay me down
In harmony
To rest my soul in peace
And be taming that beast
Lay me down
In harmony
To rest my soul in peace
And be taming that inner beast

Now horizon slightly shrinks
And it seems as if there is
No way back to what
We deserve to be

Like when I'm driving down L-Street and I see them girls with shiny beads. Selling their classy asses on behalf of the brothel keeper like a piece of meat to a hundred different Joe-Schmoes in their audis or benzes observed it once thought oh no, Joe is paying them in cash for a suck my slick dick coz he must dash

Now all you wanna do is to Lay yourself down
In harmony
To rest your soul in peace
Be taming that beast
Lay me down
In harmony
To rest your soul in peace
And be taming that inner beast

THE BOAT SONG

The night has come, the stars appear, one by one
The ocean looks quiet, calm and silent
Like resting in peace
Only my ship is tumbling, fighting
But yet it's drowning
Deep down to the bottom of the sea
May it rest in peace

Now the ship is gone, my crew is dead, I'm all alone
Holding on to a log, the question is
Am I the scorpio or the frog
And in the end it does really save my life
And on a treasure island I stand

And then I'm awake and I hurry to you, my beloved
But oh no I forgot that you've drowned too
With the rest of the boat down to the ground of the sea
May it rest in peace

Now a new morning has broke and the world appears
In a different lightning
The shadows fade away as the sun begins to rise
Until it has reached high noon and you can see all your choices
And you could decide within a minute
And let the old ones just rest in peace

And then I'm awake and I hurry to you, my beloved
But oh no I forgot that you've drowned too
With the rest of the boat down to the ground of the sea

IT IS WHAT IT IS

I want to you to know
That I'm in love with you
And everything there is to do
I will face and follow through
I hope can I resist those fears
Accumulated in so many years
Approval though received in plenty
Did I really know love when I was twenty

And if I have to go
Then time's caught up with us
Don't blame me for being empty
Sometimes you just can't save anything
I would never mean to hurt you
Once I did I can't go back to
What we've intended to be
No I can't go back to
What we've intended to be
So please just let us be in

Love.
Good for real and nice in fiction
Always in need of a little contradiction
I said Love.
Good for real and nice in fiction
Always in need of a little contradiction

Someday when we're old and tired
I just hope that we'll remember
What we used to admire
And understand we had to love break and then part
Go on with life like pressing restart
Shall we be wise enough
To admit that this was truly love
Shall we be wise enough
To admit that this was truly

Love.
Good for real and nice in fiction
Always in need of a little contradiction
I said Love.
Good for real and nice in fiction
Always in need of so many contradictions

WHO CAN BE REAL

Who can be real
Oh what a deal
To go out and steal
Have we forgotten how to reveal
So it's a damn wheel
Stick to your own true feelings
And don't walk it in high heels
If you're afraid of showing

Smoke your fears down, on your head put a crown
Walk and live in disguise, your words will be only lies
With your games you're off to catch
Well I'm sorry dude but we just don't match
Late at night when I get no sleep
Coz battling voices make me only weep
I get calm while I'm stretching my spine
Wake up once in while and I humbly rhyme

It's so hard to insist, when suddenly being dissed
Have tried to be loved by simply loving you all
But fate had something else in mind
You'd see much more if you were blind
Our senses wrapped in plastic illusions
Can't even recognize all the intrusions
Making us deaf dumb and blind you see
But we need at least one sense so we can be

Wait for me stand in a line coz I will get ya
You'd be surprised I'd bet ya

Who can be real
Oh what a deal
To go out and steal
Have we forgotten how to reveal
So it's a damn wheel
Stick to your own true feelings
And don't walk it in high heels
If you're afraid of showing

We're set to fulfill
A system that kills
If we don't start to restructure
We'll destroy all of our culture
The brain is a tool that turns to be useless
Don't promise me nothing
Just care what the truth is

Wait for me stand in a line coz I will get ya
You'd be surprised I'd bet ya

Who can be real
Oh what a deal
To go out and steal
Have we forgotten how to reveal
So it's a damn wheel
Stick to your own true feelings
And don't walk it in high heels
If you're afraid of showing
real sex appeal

FOOL

Where am I now, and what am I doing, and most important of it all is, where am I going? Too many questions that keep rushing through my head like they are racing, chasing one hint that could block my blur with patience. But the one thought that ought to let me forget you, do not regret to have loved you and given you – it would have driven me nuts anyway – never came. So I am busy with rehearsing, composing, sometimes attracting and then opposing, and running from one place to the other trying to find the one where I won't be thinking of you. And I know you are far away though one day we might go: Hey, After all of this time I still miss how we used to

When I said love that day
I meant really all the way
To be faithful in it all
Including to rise and to fall
Being true and open and
Not just hoping for a cue

Once in a while I believe
That love just cannot stay with me
Have the dice already cast
For what I've perpetrated in the past

How could you
Be such a fool
Why this way
There's nothing left to say
I won't decay
Won't even bother
For another day

INSTINCT

Follow the instinct, you can't let it down
Predict all the consequences by using what is known Combine all your talents with the power of will
You see fortunate is who ain't stuck with a pill

Some do miscarry their hopes on the way
Some might get buried in games that we play

Thoughts that succeed were repeated in time
Making mistakes is a must not a crime

Now open your eyes and you will see where you've gone
The path is a mirror to what you've decided and done
When truth is about to follow don't twist it around
Coz now is just not tomorrow, deal with that when the time has come

Some do miscarry their visions on their way
Some lose their intuition and dreams all the way

Thoughts that succeed were repeated in time
Making mistakes is a must not a crime
Thoughts that succeed were repeated in time
Making mistakes is a must not a crime

VISIONS

There is a hole in the universe
For we betrayed the ones we love
And in my dreams I saw our world
Break into pieces and falling apart
I don't remember when or how it happened
Every one of us could see the threat
And if you didn't know that you knew
Nothing at all
You would sure rise high and then fall low

And that was only gonna show you a mirror to your face
Maybe you'd fail to do the right thing
No one can blame the cause
but just the doing

Chaos rule them lost minds
Don't misjudge being impulsive
For it's what we are

And it's only gonna show you a mirror to your face
Maybe you'd fail to do the right thing
No one could blame the cause
but just the doing

HEAL

I can give you a moment
I can wait for a sigh
I want you to love me
But I need us to fly
And you can leave without warning
And prolong your return
Couldn't end all my yearning
Even if my heart has to burn

Coz is there an opponent
I still be here to try
Too many components
Make my doubts subside
And you can say all the things
That reflect how you feel
I know it is true and I know
That we will heal

YOU SPEAK OF LOVE

I'd like to take it step by step
And not rush into what I know I will regret
And yet somehow you make me do
What I never never thought I'd be able to

But in such a blur
It gets hot and wild
The target is the inner the child
And as you slow down
You allure to forgive
But you're just counting peas
Coz you cannot retrieve
And then I want to leave so quickly
But I don't know what it does to me

You're closing your ears just like shutting a door
You walk in circles like you've done it before
And you can see the signs but you're trapped in a cage
Where have you lost all that courage, where have you lost your faith

In such a blur
It gets hot and wild
The target is the inner child
And as you slow down
You allure to forgive
But you're just counting peas
Coz you cannot retrieve
You speak of love so easily
and I want to leave so quickly
But you don't know what it does to me

Fears have sucked you up they're so tangible
And now you think they're for real you've become so fragile
And then you welcome just any excuse
For you to hide and not to deal with the abuse

But in such a blur
It gets hold and wild
The target is as always the child
And as you slow down
You allure to forgive
But you're just counting peas
Coz you cannot retrieve
You speak of love so easily
And I want to leave so quickly
But you don't know what it does to me
